Guildford Town Centre Surprises Guaranteed

Alice in Wonderland had a very important date at White Lion Walk

On Saturday 3rd April, White Lion Walk Shopping Centre in Guildford became a world of imagination for children thanks to the Centre's FREE Alice in Wonderland fun day.

In celebration of the Alice in Wonderland show appearing at the Yvonne Arnaud Theatre, the Shopping Centre played host to storytelling sessions in Trotter's Children's store, free face painting and an arts and crafts workshop where young shoppers could make anything they desired from Easter cards to bookmarks and bunny masks.

What's more in true Mad Hatters Tea Party style shoppers enjoyed delicious treats from Millies Cookies in return for a small donation to CHASE children's hospice.

Centre Manager of White Lion Walk, Steve Cotney, commented: "Our Alice in Wonderland fun day was a great success and, as ever, highlights our fantastic relationship with the Yvonne Arnaud Theatre. It was wonderful to see so many children taking part in the workshop and the story telling sessions as well as raising money to help a very worthy cause such as CHASE.
