

An inter-galactic adventure lands at White Lion Walk

To celebrate the show 'The Way Back Home' appearing at Guildford's Yvonne Arnaud Theatre, Trotters Childrenswear Store in White Lion Walk Shopping Centre, Guildford, played host to some fabulous storytelling sessions on Saturday 6th August.

From 11am to 2pm, youngsters were invited to hear award-winning author, Oliver Jeffers', inter-galactic tale about a little boy seeking adventure.

One day a boy finds a plane in his cupboard. He flies his plane higher and higher until he runs out of petrol and lands on the moon. He is frightened, lost and alone until a passing Martian lands there too! Who is the strange alien? Can they be friends? And how will they find their way back home?

With original music and plenty of audience participation, this exciting new production for families and young children has been created by the team behind the hit shows Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus! and The Night Before Christmas, presented as a co-production with Theatre Royal Winchester.

The Way Back Home is on stage in Guildford from 18th – 20th August only and tickets are on sale now! You can book yours by calling the Yvonne Arnaud Theatre Box Office (01483) 44 00 00 or by visiting the website at www.yvonne-arnaud.co.uk

Steve Cotney, Centre Manager of White Lion Walk, commented: "As always, we strive to support other businesses in the local community so we were really pleased to be able to work with the Yvonne Arnaud again. All of the children seemed to really enjoy the story and it was lovely to see it taking place in the centre."
