Bra-vo to the ladies of Surrey

White Lion Walk's Bra Bank is a firm success with a massive 2438 donations!

White Lion Walk Shopping Centre is delighted to announce that their Bra Bank Campaign, which came to a close last month, has collected an incredible 2438 bras from shoppers!

Launched back in April 2015 the donated bras will now raise money in two ways. First, traders in developing countries will sell the textiles to support their families, keeping them out of poverty. Second, the bras are weighed before export, with £1 per kilo donated to the Jarvis Breast Screening Centre in Guildford - which provides one of the largest NHS breast screening services in England for women aged between 50 and 70 years old.

Steve Cotney, Centre Manager of White Lion Walk, commented:

“The local people of Surrey have been fantastic in coming forward and getting involved. I knew the women in our community would do all they could to support this charity campaign, but I had no idea just how successful it would be. I'd like to thank each and every person who has made a donation; it is wonderful that so many people have taken the time and effort to contribute – it is generosity like this that will make such a positive difference to two very worthwhile causes.”
