

WHITE LION WALK

Guildford Town Centre Surprises Guaranteed

Shoppers enjoy a 'cracking' good Easter weekend at White Lion Walk

On Saturday 4th April White Lion Walk Shopping Centre in Guildford hosted an incredible free Easter Eggs-travaganza event offering a variety of fun activities for all the family.

Throughout the day younger shoppers took advantage of the centre's free face painter, went exploring as part of a special an egg hunt to find scrumptious rewards and even got creative with an Easter themed arts and crafts card making workshop.

Furthermore, White Lion Walk ran a competition to 'guess the name of the giant Easter bunny' which was won by six year old Tyler Malabuyo from Guildford after he guessed the correct name of Fuzzy Pegg! Tyler was then presented with the giant bunny by White Lion Walk's very own mascot, Lionel the Lion.

Dawn Phelps from White Lion Walk, commented:

"The weekend's event was a great success and it was wonderful to see so many of our shoppers and local residents taking part in the free activities with their families to celebrate the Easter bank holiday. Congratulations to little Tyler on winning our bunny competition, it is definitely an Easter toy he won't forget and I hope that he will love Fuzzy Pegg for many years to come!"
