

WHITE LION WALK

Guildford Town Centre Surprises Guaranteed

Families have ‘cracking’ good Easter at White Lion Walk

On Saturday 26th March families at White Lion Walk in Guildford were treated to a day packed full of fun as the shopping centre hosted their free Easter ‘Egg-stravaganza’ event.

Throughout the day, children not only had the chance to meet the popular nursery rhyme character Humpty Dumpty, but also got to take part in a special treasure hunt around the centre putting Humpty ‘back together again’ in return for scrumptious Easter treats. Furthermore, the children were able to have their faces transformed into Easter themed works of art by the centre’s free face painter and also enjoyed free storytelling sessions at Trotters Childrenswear.

It wasn’t just the youngsters that took part in the fun though; the centre also hosted a special adult’s anagram hunt where they had to decipher the clues correctly for the chance to win a hamper full of Cadbury’s goodies. With over 50 adults taking part it was incredibly popular, however only one winner could be chosen and Michael Poulter from Guildford was selected at random, elated to have won the prize for his family.

Steve Cotney, Centre Manager of White Lion Walk Shopping Centre, commented: “Our Easter event was a great success and it was wonderful to see so many families taking part in the free activities and enjoying their Saturday together. We pride ourselves on being a shopping centre that gives back to our local community so we were delighted to be able to offer this free entertainment and I hope that everyone had a wonderful Easter weekend.”
