Christmas in Guildford started with a bang!

White Lion Walk sponsors biggest firework display to date at Guildford's Christmas light switch on event

On Thursday 19th November, Guildford's Christmas lights were officially switched on by a host of characters and celebrities, but even the most spectacular events have to go out with a bang and this year was no exception thanks to White Lion Walk Shopping Centre.

In celebration of the town's Christmas light switch on event, White Lion Walk teamed up with the Surrey Advertiser to find one lucky child to push the start button on the firework display, and this year 11 year old Sydney Kerry from St Joseph's School was picked as the winner. In true celebrity style Sydney was invited to meet the stars of The Yvonne Arnaud Theatre's Pantomime Jack and The Beanstalk and the Centre Manager of White Lion Walk, Steve Cotney, for a photocall before being whisked onto the platform to push the all-important button that started the festive season with a colourful bang. As the competition winner, Sydney was also presented with a family ticket to see Jack and The Beanstalk at The Yvonne Arnaud Theatre later this year.

Steve Cotney, Centre Manager at White Lion Walk, said: "We have sponsored the fireworks for many years now but this year's display was our biggest and most spectacular to date. White Lion Walk prides itself on being a central point of the community and with the help of our competition winner, Sydney; it was a pleasure to provide the people of Guildford with this year's sparkling entertainment."
