WHITE LION WALK SHOPPERS SURPRISED BY PANTO FLASH MOB

GUILDFORD Christmas shoppers were in for a surprise on Saturday, November 23, as some of the Yvonne Arnaud Theatre cast of Cinderella amused White Lion Walk customers with an impressive flash mob.

As Guildford's Guildhall clock chimed midday on Saturday, Cinderella and her broom swept their way through White Lion Walk before spontaneously breaking into dance as the song I'm A Believer filled the shopping centre. Gradually more and more dancers assembled, performing a lively flash mob routine to bemused and unsuspecting spectators.

White Lion Walk Centre Manager Steve Cotney said: "The flash mob was fantastic and really added some sparkle into the normal Saturday shop. Our customers were thrilled by the entertainment and it was fantastic to see so many people supporting the artists from Cinderella before the show opens."

Laura Butler from Guildford's Yvonne Arnaud Theatre said: "Panto is all about putting on a magical, traditional family show for the local community to enjoy, so we were thrilled that White Lion Walk gave us the opportunity to get out into the centre of our local community and have some Panto fun ahead of Opening Night next week."

"The atmosphere was great, the cast had a ball and shoppers seemed to welcome our spontaneous display!"

From 11am to 4pm on Saturday 30th November, shoppers at White Lion Walk will be in with the chance of winning a whole host of fantastic prizes including tickets to see Cinderella at the Yvonne Arnaud Theatre simply by taking part in an incredible 'If the shoe fits' competition.
