White Lion Walk celebrates 11th annual Macmillan Coffee Morning

On Friday 29th September White Lion Walk celebrated its 11th annual Macmillan Coffee Morning and is thrilled to announce it has raised just under £100.

Guildford commuters were served scrumptious cookies and coffee courtesy of Starbucks and Millies Cookies located within White Lion Walk in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support's World's Biggest Coffee Morning event.

The money raised will go towards paying for Macmillan nurses, benefit workers and social workers who provide medical, emotional and financial support for those dealing with cancer. Last year the coffee morning raised a record £29.5 million nationally, and an astonishing £245 million since its launch in 1990, and 2017's event was expected to raise the most funds to date.

Steve Cotney, Centre Manager of White Lion Walk, commented;

"This is the 11th year we have hosted White Lion Walk's Macmillan Coffee Morning. Once again I would like to thank the loyal commuters and team at Artington Park and Ride who have helped us raise funds for this deserving charity."
