Guildford Town Centre Surprises Guaranteed

White Lion Walk photography competition winner announced!

White Lion Walk Shopping Centre in Guildford is delighted to announce the winner of its photography competition, in conjunction with The Surrey Advertiser and Guildford in Bloom, as Ezra Rollinson (23) from Guildford.

Held in celebration of White Lion Walk's sponsorship of Guildford in Bloom, the competition invited budding photographers to capture the essence of Surrey 'in bloom'. Just under 100 amazing entries were received. All the photographs submitted were displayed within the shopping centre throughout June and six finalists were then picked by White Lion Walk's Centre Management team before shoppers voted for their favourite.

White Lion Walk is thrilled to have presented lucky winner Ezra with a variety of prizes including a tripod, camera bag and a high quality lens, plus lots more after his photograph received the highest number of votes from the public, titled 'Castle Grounds'. Steve Cotney, Centre Manager of White Lion Walk, commented:

"I'm delighted with the outcome of our White Lion Walk photography competition. The public chose a truly outstanding piece and I would like to thank everyone that took the time to enter, all the entries were simply stunning. Congratulations again to Ezra on his photo of the 'Castle Grounds' it was fantastic."

Ezra Rollinson, Winner of the White Lion Walk photography competition, added:

"I'm thrilled to have been chosen as the winner of White Lion Walk's photography competition and I would like to thank all of the public who voted for me! I've seen the other entries and they were absolutely fantastic. Thank you to White Lion Walk for giving me the opportunity to display my
