Postman Pat® visits White Lion Walk!

On Saturday 28th November children's favourites, Postman Pat & Jess the Cat, visited children and their families at White Lion Walk Shopping Centre in Guildford.

The hugely popular postman was at the centre to meet and greet visitors and pose for photos with youngsters throughout the day!

What's more, White Lion Walk launched their Letters to Santa campaign on the day which invites local children to post their very own letters to Father Christmas in a special post box at the Centre.

Once the letters have been posted they will be processed by the elves at White Lion Walk's sorting office and delivered to Father Christmas in Lapland. Children will then receive their own personal response from the big man himself!

Steve Cotney, Centre Manager of White Lion Walk Shopping Centre, commented:

"We were thrilled to have Postman Pat visit our shoppers here at White Lion Walk. He is such a well-loved character who is treasured by children and adults alike and he was a great hit with everyone on the day. It was the perfect opportunity for us to launch our Letters to Santa campaign and I encourage all children to get their letters posted to the main man himself before our last post on Sunday 13th December."
