Guildford Town Centre Surprises Guaranteed

The Boys are Back in Town!!!

To onlookers it would have appeared that hundreds of screaming fans gathered at White Lion Walk Shopping Centre in Guildford on Saturday 29th June to see boy band Awesome perform as part of their world tour!

In actual fact, the bands performance was really a specially designed flash mob to promote a new show by local youth theatre, The Man In The Moon, who are performing a play called Totally Over You at Guildford's Electric Theatre as part of their MIMfest2013.

Awesome, the deceiving boy band who some shoppers thought were members of One Direction, performed twice throughout the day to their group of adoring fans and bemused onlookers. They then invited shoppers to come and support their 'real' stage debut on the 19th and 20th July.

Steve Cotney, Centre Manager at White Lion Walk, commented: "Having the boy band flash mob in the centre was great fun and it created a really great atmosphere. It was hilarious to see crowds of people all trying to catch a glimpse of what they thought was a famous pop group. I wish the performers all the best with the real show at the Electric Theatre later this month."
