Guildford Heat raises £1000 at Charity Game at Surrey Sports Park

The Heat's mascot, Scorch and Lionel the Lion from White Lion Walk shopping centre helped to entertain spectators at Guildford Heat's charity game on Wednesday 15.02.12, which raised £1,000 to be split between Breast Cancer Care and the Heat Community Foundation.

The money was largely raised by fans bidding to play alongside Heat players in a friendly but competitive game, which ended with a 97-96 score.

The talented Heat Street 13 dance group provided additional entertainment and there was a range of fun games for kids to participate in throughout the evening. The raffle also proved popular, with TV presenter, Mark Evans offering a prize of a ride in his famous 'Hill Billy' Land rover, which he parked at Surrey Sports Park.

Steve Cotney, Centre Manager of White Lion Walk Shopping Centre, commented, "We pride ourselves at White Lion Walk in being actively involved with community events and this event was a great example. The money raised for the Heat Community Foundation will either go towards funding a sport wheelchair or low baskets to help when teaching younger children."
