

WHITE LION WALK

Guildford Town Centre Surprises Guaranteed

Surrey's Marvellous Mum is crowned!

A few weeks ago White Lion Walk Shopping Centre in Guildford teamed up with the Surrey Advertiser and the Yvonne Arnaud Theatre to find a local mum that deserved a special treat and recognition for all her hard work. The competition which ran in celebration of Mother's Day received a fantastic amount of entries, however, only one lucky mum could be selected at random and that was Karen Holder, mum to six year old Rebekah from Fleet.

On Friday 12th March White Lion Walk's Centre Manager, Steve Cotney, the Centre's cheeky mascot Lionel the Lion and Laura Butler from the Yvonne Arnaud Theatre presented Karen with her prizes. Karen received two tickets to see the classic story 'When Harry met Sally' at the Yvonne Arnaud Theatre as well as dinner for two at the theatres Al Fresco restaurant on Mothers Day and a stunning bouquet of flowers, making her feel extra special.

Centre Manager of White Lion Walk, Steve Cotney, commented: "Being a mum today is a very hectic job. There are lots of mums in Surrey who do a first-rate job so we wanted to run a competition that recognises and appreciates their hard work. The Marvellous Mum competition gave the public a great chance to do this and I am delighted to announce Karen as the well earned winner, congratulations."
