FAMILY PORTRAITS, HENRY VIII AND DIAMONDS – THE JUBILEE IN GUILDFORD

To celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, White Lion Walk Shopping Centre in Guildford held their very own regal event for shoppers on Saturday 2nd June.

Throughout the day, visitors took part in a royal treasure hunt lead by Henry VIII with scrumptious edible rewards from Millie's Cookies.

With themed bunting, a free face painter and Union Jack flags being given away, it certainly created a patriotic atmosphere to add to the normal Saturday shopping trip.

Steve Cotney, Centre Manager at White Lion Walk, commented: "The Queen's Jubilee was a huge event in the calendar for 2012 and we wanted to provide our shoppers and their families with a fun event to keep everyone entertained over the weekend. We had over 250 children take part in our treasure hunt throughout the day and it was fantastic to see everyone in such high spirits."
