

Surrey Sports Park celebrate their 1st Anniversary at White Lion Walk

On Tuesday 19th April, White Lion Walk Shopping Centre in Guildford played host to Surrey Sports Park to celebrate the Sports Park's 1st anniversary. Featuring an array of exciting events for the shoppers, free giveaways and the 'Storm the Stag' mascot who met the famous Lionel the Lion from the centre, a great day was had by all.

Throughout the day shoppers visited the branded Surrey Sports Park unit and took part in some fantastic games such as Shoot the Hoop and The Shuttlecock Challenge. Everyone that took part received a great surprise as they were rewarded a free Easter Egg as well as being entered into a prize draw to win a host of goodies which included free memberships, free places to their kids summer camps, free swims and much much more.

Centre Manager of White Lion Walk, Steve Cotney, commented: "We always strive to support local businesses in the area and I am delighted that we were able to help Surrey Sports Park celebrate their first anniversary. Their fun activity showed just how much is on offer at their fantastic complex."

Paul Blanchard, CEO of Surrey Sports Park, commented: "Surrey Sports Park has enjoyed a fantastic first year bringing a host of sporting events and opportunities to Guildford including the Women's Rugby World Cup last August. Surrey Sports Park is now established as an elite training venue, being used by nations preparing for next year's Olympic games. We are also a thriving members fitness club and run a number of schools and junior programme creating the pathways for all ages and abilities to participate in sport."
