

White Lion Walk welcomes fantastic home wares store Cargo to Guildford

On Thursday 4th November, Cargo Home shop, the home wares and furniture store, returned to Guildford after a ten-year break and opened their doors to the public at their new home in White Lion Walk Shopping Centre.

Officially opened by The Mayor of Guildford, Councillor Marsha Moseley and White Lion Walk's adorable mascot, Lionel the Lion, staff at the Cargo store generously handed out champagne and even offered free goodie bags worth over £25 to their first 25 customers.

Established over 100 years ago in 1876 by 21-year-old entrepreneur James Waller Carpenter, Cargo are renowned for their inspirational ideas to create a stylish look for less in the home.

Clive Gilbert, Managing Director of Cargo said; 'we are delighted to be returning to Guildford after a break of ten years. Having opened in Kingston and Camberley in the past year we were determined to open additional shops in Surrey. We look forward to welcoming back some old friends as well as making some new ones!'
